Two years later, it is summer break and Wes wakes up to the sound of the phone ringing. It's Tony, asking where Mary is. Tony is very protective of Wes, although Wes doesn't see him often as Tony spends most of his time in the Murphy Homes Projects —a filthy cluster of buildings, nicknamed the "Murder Homes," which are overrun by criminal activity.

What to look for in a home Once you're ready to start looking for a home, think carefully about what's most important to you, both in terms of location and in terms of the house itself. Don't focus too much on cosmetic concerns that can be changed, like wall colors, shag carpet or the current owner's extensive cuckoo clock collection.
