Redesigning the American Dream: The Future of Housing ...

In Redesigning the American Dream: The Future of Housing, Work and Family Life, Dolores Hayden, a professor at the Graduate School of Architecture and Urban Planning at UCLA, argues that average wage earners continue to desire a private suburban house--miles from work, day care and other forms of public life--even if it no longer suits their needs. In her words, "the dream house is a uniquely American form, because for the first time in history a civilization has created a utopian idea based ...
