The first and perhaps best budget travel tip for visiting Venice involves selection of dates for your trip. Be warned: if you visit Venice in summer, the experience will be far different than an off-season stopover. Plan to be patient and wait in line for major attractions. Look for higher peak-season prices, too.

The center of Venice is definitely San Marco sq, so any hotel in the San Marco area or the west part of the Castelo area will be fine.. Venice is indeed very compact, but it may take longer than it seems to get from point A to point B. Reason for that is its maze-like narrow (and many extremely narrow, about 1.5 m wide!!!) alleys, streets, dead-ends, canals and
